

COOKIES POLICY

Information about cookies:

At <https://www.agriorbis.es> we use our own and third-party cookies to improve our services and show you advertising related to your preferences by analysing your browsing habits. If you continue browsing, we consider that you accept their use.

To learn more, or learn how to change your settings, read on

What is a cookie?

Cookies are small files that are stored on your computer when you visit a website and are mainly used to make your browsing experience more effective and faster. Later, when the user reconnects with the website, that small amount of information will serve to remind the browser of you.

The set of cookies we use helps us to improve the quality of our website by allowing us to monitor which pages our users find useful and which they do not. In addition, many online features have been specifically designed to work through the use of cookies

IMPORTANT

- You should know that cookies cannot harm your computer.
- Cookies do not contain personal data or reveal your identity.

What types of cookies are there?

For more information about cookies:

- Cookies can be our own (our own website stores them) or third-party (from external servers)
- We can also differentiate between session cookies (when we log out of the website they are deleted) and permanent cookies (they remain on your computer for a certain time). They are also divided into:
 - Functional cookies (without them the website would not function properly)
 - Analytical cookies (they keep all the information on the user's activity on our website in order to carry out studies and analyse different parameters)
 - Personalisation cookies (they determine our preferences in terms of colours, language, etc.)
 - Advertising cookies (depending on detected habits, offer personalized offers)
 - Affiliation cookies (with which visits from other websites with which there is an affiliation contract are tracked)

How can I manage cookies (enable and/or disable them)?

To enable/disable cookies on your computer, tablet or smartphone, you must do so through your internet browser. In the most used/well-known browsers, we indicate below how to manage the use of these cookies.
